

Third: Instructions for emergency cases

For emergency cases, the patient should refer to the emergency during the working hours.

The patient goes to the accounting office to pay the costs of treatment (according to the insurance party) after completing the medical procedure