

Abdel Rahman Bani Amer received his B.Sc. in Chemical Engineering in 2009. Right after, he got employed in the Pharmaceutical Research Center (PRC) at the Jordan University of Science and Technology (JUST) as a lab supervisor. Since then, he has been working with diverse analytical instruments including. Bani Amer, was a principal participant in establishing the ISO 9001 at the PRC. Additionally, he served as a QS-lead auditor at JUST. Moreover, Bani Amer was involved in many research projects including projects funded by the European Union for the treatment of olive mill wastewater, the characterization of polymers and drug formulations.