

Building Material, Furniture Waste Treatment

Example of Inorganic Waste Treatment (Jordan University of Science & Technology, Jordan)

Description:

The central supplies unit and the operation and maintenance unit collect building materials waste, and materials that can be recycled many of these items reused in another places or maintenance projects and other items sold in a scrap yard, then the central bids department sells these materials in a public auction to companies and factories that recycle or reuse these materials.