

Consumption of treated water

Example of Consumption of treated water (JUST, Jordan)

Description:

The university treats the water of the Al-Hosn well and the water of the Al-Naima well of the university, in addition to the rainwater resulting from the water harvest, and checks the nitrate levels in it in accordance with the Jordanian code for drinking water, and then reuses it all to cover the needs of the various university buildings and irrigate the crops.