Dental Specialties

By

Ms. Zain Malkawi, MSDH

Dental Specialties

- Prosthodontist
- Periodontist
- Pedodontist
- Orthodontist
- Endodontist
- Exodontist
- Dental Surgeon
- Oral Medicine
- Dental aesthetics
- Dental implantation
- Orofacial pain and temporomandibular disorders
- Public health dentistry

Prosthodontist

A dentist who is expert in prosthodontics:
Replacing missing teeth at the oral cavity

Removable Complete Denture

Removable Partial Denture

Fixed Bridge

Periodontist

A dentist who specializing in diseases of the gum (gingiva) and other structure surrounding the teeth

Pedodontist

A dentist who specializes in the care of children's teeth

Orthodontist

A dentist specializing in the prevention or correction of irregularities of the teeth

Removable Orthodontic Appliance

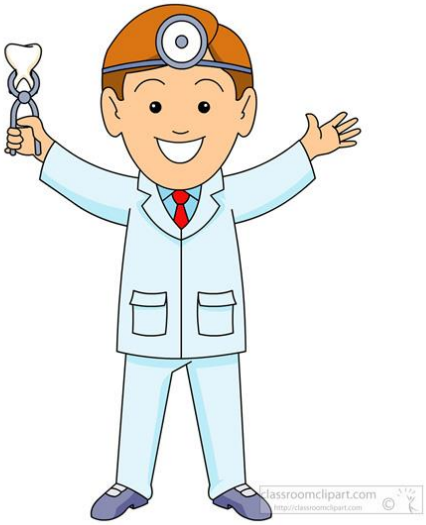
Orthodontic Treatment (Fixed Appliance)

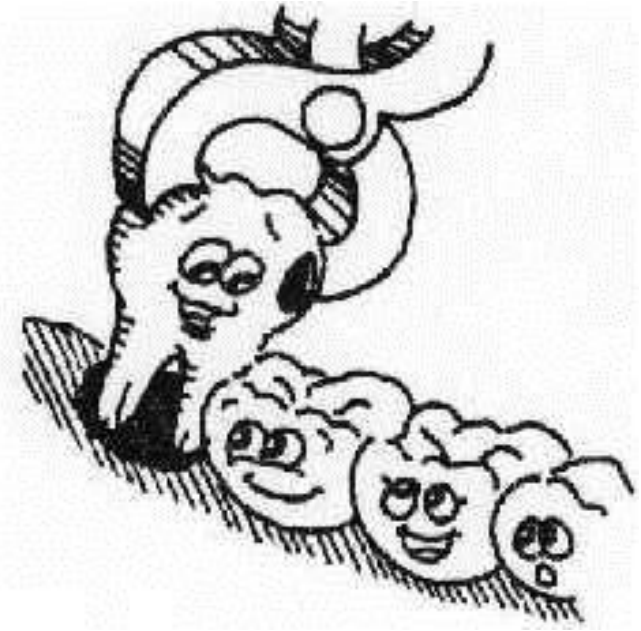
Endodontics

A dentist who specializes in diseases of the dental pulp and nerve

Exodontist

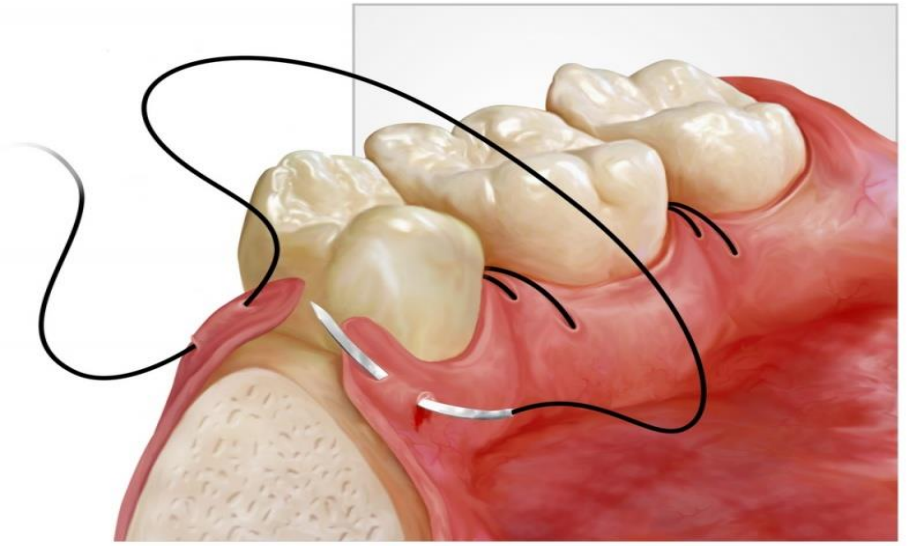
A dentist specializing in the extraction of teeth





Dental Surgeon

A dentist qualified to perform surgical procedures



Oral Medicine

A Dental specialty placed at the interface between medicine and dentistry

Concerned with:

1. Clinical diagnosis
2. Non-surgical management of non-dental pathologies that affecting the oral and maxillofacial region

Dental Aesthetics

The skills and techniques used to improve the art and symmetry of the teeth and face to maintain:

Appearance Function of:

1. Teeth
2. Oral cavity
3. Face.

Dental Implantation

A "root" device, usually made of titanium, used in dentistry to support restorations that represent a tooth or group of teeth to replace missing teeth.

Public Health Dentistry

A non-clinical specialty of dentistry

Involved in the assessment of dental health needs and maintaining the dental health of populations rather than individuals

Review Question…!!

- What are the main Dental specialties..??

- Give a brief of the duty of each specialty..!!

The End