

Jordan University of Science and Technology
Faculty of Agriculture
Department of Animal Production
Semester

Course Information
Course Title	Poultry Nutrition
Course Number	AP 314
Prerequisites
Course Website
Instructor	Dr. Nafez Al-Bietawi
Office Location	M1L3
Office Phone	7201000 Ext. 22223
Office Hours
E-mail	albeitawi@just.edu.jo
Teaching Assistant
Course Description

Text Book
Title	Commercial Poultry Nutrition
Author(s)	S. Leasons and J.D. Summers
Publisher	University Books, PO BOX: 1326, Guelph Ontario Canada.
Year	1997
Edition	2 nd edition
Book Website
References

Assessment Policy
Assessment Type	Expected Due Date	Weight
First Exam		25
Second Exam		25
Final Exam		40
Assignments		10

Course Objectives	Weights
To enlighten students to the principles of poultry nutrition.

Teaching & Learning Methods

Learning Outcomes: Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to Learn the necessary information to enable them to perform the duties of poultry nutritionists.

Learn the scientific principles of poultry nutrition and become familiar with many aspects of both feeds and poultry industry.

Useful Resources

Course Content

Week	Topics	Chapter in Text (handouts)
1	Introduction	1
2	Components of poultry diets	2
3, 4	Ingredient evaluation & diet formulation	3
5, 6	Feeding programs for growing egg-strain pullets	4
7, 8	Feeding programs for laying hens	5
9, 10	Feeding programs for broilers	6
11, 12, 13	Feeding programs for broiler breeders	7
14, 15	Nutritional diseases & vices	8

Additional Notes

Assignments
Exams	No make-up exams unless excuses accepted.
Cheating
Attendance	Attendance in the class is compulsory. Students are expected to attend class regularly.
Workload	Quizzes may be given whenever needed.
Graded Exams
Participation	Participation and discussion in class are strongly recommended

Laboratory
Projects	